CPI PROPERTY GROUP – Muddy Waters Part 2

CPI PROPERTY GROUP (“CPIPG”) acknowledges the publication of a second report by Muddy Waters.

Similar to the first report, the second attempt includes sensational statements, recycled criticisms and poor research. Once again, CPIPG will prepare a detailed and professional response based on facts.

The first report by Muddy Waters had no impact on CPIPG’s access to liquidity, disposals, or other strategic plans. Our stakeholders have been enormously supportive, for which we are grateful.

CPIPG is confident that our disclosures are accurate, and we are proud to be fully transparent and open. We welcome the opportunity to demonstrate, once again, the investment and asset management skills that have enabled CPIPG to build such a successful track record over the last 30 years.
